Before You Submit

- The session should highlight concrete knowledge, initiatives, or innovations and promote multi-stakeholder partnerships ;
- Technical workshop submissions can be made by individuals.
- Side events proposals are reserved for organizations only (NGOs, government bodies, research centers, etc.).

About the Call

You are a professional in marine and coastal conservation, a coastal stakeholder, a leader within a public institution or a national or international NGO, a young leader, a private sector promoter, a researcher, a donor, or similar.

You have initiatives, innovations, or concerns to share regarding the conservation and sustainable management of coastal areas.

The Forum offers you the opportunity to engage in a space for dialogue, experience sharing, and collective reflection.

This is a unique chance to gain visibility and present your ideas, successes, and results to donors, decision-makers, and conservation professionals.
